FASHION DESIGN

During the Fashion Design course students will set out from the drawing of the human body, with the study of a simplified anatomy. Then they will be introduced to the representation techniques of the figurines on which they can develop the sketches of clothes. The program continues with the study of models, accessories, decoration techniques, visual communication of fashion and the fundamental concepts of fashion marketing. Students will learn the theory and the symbology of color (scales, contrast, harmony) and the use of pantones, colored pencils, watercolors, chalk pastels. Later they will study the fabrics, experimenting with the representation of the different types of material. Finally, based on the knowledge acquired, students will try to create a collection, choosing and developing a theme.

To obtain satisfactory results and get to the preparation of the paper patterns, it is suggested the attendance of the course for at least 2 months in the Semi-intensive mode.

PROGRAM

- Phase of creative research through magazines, newspapers, catalogues or pictures taken by the student around the city.
- Phase of tendency synthesis with the creation of a tendency panel that demonstrates the research done on the chosen theme.
- Development of the theme through fashion sketches and illustrations.
- Data sheets with technical drawings.
